PRESENTATION: Ken McCormick, Fire Marshall, discussing increases for plumbing and mechanical, electrical and Sub code fees

Fire Marshall, Ken McCormick discussed all the new plumbing and mechanical, electrical and Sub code fees for the Ordinances that will be introduced in the next few weeks and he also went over the Ordinance for tonight's introduction on amending Chapter 8.

Councilman Parker asked Mr. McCormick to clarify his statement that the Borough does not know when new businesses come in. Mr. McCormick stated that was correct and there is no cross communications with other departments or FCP. Councilman Parker would like to form a committee with the Fire Marshall, Construction Official and Robin Lapidus from the FCP to discuss a process for new businesses coming in to the Borough.

Council President Long questioned the fees and if they were too high for new businesses. Mr. McCormick went over the fee structure.

MAYOR'S REPORT: Discussion on changing November meeting dates

Mayor Karrow made a formal appointment for the Alternate #3 seat on the Planning Board to Rose DeMario.

Mayor Karrow asked for a moment of silence for the people of Israel and for peace in the Middle East.

Mayor Karrow reported Coffee with a Cop will be held October 26, 2023 at the Flemington McDonalds. Mayor Karrow also reported that Main Street is paved now and looks beautiful due to a road Ordinance that was adopted in the Spring of 2023. Mayor Karrow also reported that the November 13, 2023 meeting has to be rescheduled to November 6, 2023 and November 27, 2023 due to the Borough Clerk having other commitments and the Bloomfield Ave. bid opening is October 26, 2023. The Police Department bid doc for the processing center, bathroom and HVAC system is with the Department of Corrections and once they sign off on the bid they can be advertised. Mayor Karrow stated the CFO, Bill Hance was attending the meeting online tonight to discuss the two proposals from PS&S on Bid Management and the Construction Management.

COUNCIL MEMBER REPORTS

COUNCIL PRESIDENT LONG:

Council President Long reported he attended a Hunterdon County Economic Summit which will benefit Flemington Borough as far as tourism and bringing people to Flemington and Robin Lapidus, from FCP was given an award at the Economic Summit for the wine train. Council President Long read a statement urging Councilman Johnston to resign.

COUNCIL VICE PRESIDENT TILLY:

Council Vice President Tilly reported the Halloween costume parade is October 26, 2023 and the Fire Department's hot dog cart will also be at the parade and October 29, 2023 at Borough Hall will be the Halloween candy distribution and the Witch's walk will be held on October 27, 2023.

COUNCILWOMAN ROSETTI:

Councilwoman Rosetti thanked Dave Guiliani for Code Enforcement and Councilman Rosetti reminded residents they are responsible for their own sidewalks and to obtain a permit to take down a tree. Councilwoman Rosetti urged Councilman Johnston to resign.

COUNCILMAN PARKER:

Councilman Parker asked the Council to approve spending $5,000 for the snowflakes that are put up during the holidays on Main Street. The FCP will pay the other $5,000. The Borough Attorney, Chris Corsini stated a Purchase Order is the only thing needed to order the snowflakes.

COUNCILWOMAN ENGELHARDT:

Councilwoman Englehardt reported that the Halloween decorating contest for homes and businesses deadline is October 29, 2023 and results will be available November 1, 2023. Councilwoman Englehardt also reported the Samuel Fleming House held their annual pumpkin decorating event on October 14, 2023 and it was well attended. Councilwoman Englehardt thanked the Borough employees for their hard work during the paving process. Councilwoman Englehardt also urged Councilman Johnston to resign.

PUBLIC COMMENTS – SESSION I:

Maureen Keelen from Flemington thanked the Democrat Council members for urging Malik Johnston to step down. Ms. Keelen also handed out a copy of what Ms. Johnston posted on his Facebook page and she wanted to know if he still lived in the Borough since he never shows up to Council meetings but still is getting paid for them.
